JURISDICTION AND VENUE

20. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337 and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff YOUSSEF TOURE's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. In addition, the Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff

YOUSSEUF TOURE's claims under the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

21. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Defendant's business is located in this district.

COLLECTIVE ACTION AND CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 207, Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE's seeks to prosecute his FLSA claims as a collective action on behalf of all persons who are or were formerly employed by Defendants in the United States at any time since May 5, 2014, to the entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period"), who were employed as food service workers within the meaning of the FLSA, and who were not paid minimum wage nor overtime compensation at rates not less than one-and-one-half times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek (the "Collective Action Members").

23. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3), Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE seeks to prosecute his New York Labor Law claims on behalf of all persons who were employed by defendant in the State of New York as food service workers at any time within the applicable statute of limitations period (from May 5, 2011 to the entry of judgment in this case (the "Class Period"), who have not been paid their full wages in violation of the applicable provisions of New York wage and hours laws (the "Class").

24. Prosecution of this matter as a class is necessary because the persons in the putative Class identified above are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

25. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of defendant, because there are more than 40 members of the putative class during the Class Period, most of who would not be likely to file individual suits because they lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims.

26. Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE will fairly and adequately protect the interests of both the putative Class Members and the Collective Action Members and has retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the fields of employment law and class action litigation.

27. Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE's claims are typical of the claims of the putative Class and Collective Action Members, and Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE has no interest that is contrary to, or in conflict with, the putative members of this class action or collective action.

28. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual putative Class Members and Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it virtually impossible for the members of the putative class and collection actions to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them.

29. Questions of law and fact common to the members of the putative class and collective actions predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because defendant's have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members.

30. Among the common questions of law and fact under the FLSA and New York wage and hour laws common to Plaintiff YOUSSEUF TOURE and other putative Class/Collective Action Members are the following:

- a. Whether Defendants failed and/or refused to pay the Collective Action Members pay for hours worked, in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed and/or refused to pay the putative Class

Members for hours worked, in violation of the New York wage and hour laws and the regulations promulgated thereunder;

- c. Whether Defendants failed and/or refused to provide the putative Class Members with the annual and weekly pay notices required by New York Labor Law 195.1 and the Wage Theft Prevention Act;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to keep true and accurate time records for all hours worked by YOUSSEF TOURE and the putative Class or Collective Action Members;
- e. Whether Defendants violations of the FLSA are willful as that term is used within the FLSA; and
- f. Whether Defendant's violations of New York Labor Law are willful as that term is used within the context of New York Labor Law.

31. Plaintiff YOUSSEF TOURE knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that will preclude its maintenance as a collective action or class action.
